Dean has broad experience in real estate, commercial, and employment litigation. Dean is an expert at managing complex cases at all stages, from drafting pleadings to spearheading discovery, and from trial advocacy to appeals.

Prior to his time at Lester Shaw & Levy, Dean worked for a large Brooklyn-based law firm focusing on litigation.

Representative Transactions:

- Represented general and sub-contractors in mechanics' lien foreclosure action that resulted in settlement with payment in full plus interest of all money owed.
- Represented seller of real property in successful defense of "procuring cause" litigation brought by former broker.
- Represented homeowners in multimillion-dollar litigation against contractor and architect for defective work.
- Represented mineral rights purchaser in successful international arbitration before the Hong Kong International Arbitration Center
